4 of cover description this is barbara goulden s first novel and she hopes it injects a refreshing dose of humour into the serious business of mental illness she knows from personal experience what a tremendous support the families and friends of sufferers can be to each other but perhaps few people appreciate the help patients and ex patients can also be to one another especially those living in the sort of rehabilitation house featured in knock knock who s there the kind of place nobody wants in their neighbourhood about the author barbara goulden has worked as a journalist on weekly and evening newspapers for most of the past 35 years she still remembers the sense of relief she felt after finally being given a name for the condition which was creating such mystifying and upsetting thought patterns in a close relative even though the diagnosis of schizophrenia probably helped barbara more than the relative who was actually doing battle with the illness at least it was a starting point for gaining some understanding she went on to join the national schizophrenia fellowship now rethink and became one of the founding members of the coventry group brilliant siamese cats koko and yum yum help reporter jim qwilleran solve a complicated murder plot in this mystery in the bestselling cat who series when qwilleran decides to do a feature story on junktown he gets more than he bargained for not the dope den he anticipated junktown is a haven for antique dealers and collectors as strange a lot as the crafty reporter has ever encountered when a mysterious fall ends the career and the life of one of junktown s leading citizens qwilleran is convinced it was no accident but as usual it takes koko to prove he s right more than 300 silly jokes perfect for back and forth play
